

Counting Circles

Students sit in a circle. Give one student a starting number. They take in it turns to count up in specified intervals – use integers, fractions, decimals, even algebra! Write the numbers on the board as they count. Don't rush them!

